SLO County Roundup

South County

The South County Youth Coalition will use a $7,000 grant to help families and individuals become self-sufficient.

The grant, from the Opportunity Fund at the San Luis Obispo County Community Foundation, will allow the coalition to purchase uniforms or job-appropriate clothing and bus passes, help fund legal fees, pay for prescription medicines and prevent utility shutoff, according to Connie Scott, secretary of the coalition.

The grant was made possible through the support of the Helen and Ronald Dunin Memorial Endowment.

The youth coalition is located at 1086 Grand Ave. in Arroyo Grande. For more information, call 474-2105.
