

SLO 4 Haiti Fund

Local residents, led by Cory and Karen Pfau, are building a fund to assist children in Haiti obtain education at either Cuesta College or Cal Poly, then return to Haiti to assist with long-term earthquake recovery and economic development. We are fortunate to have two leading post-secondary institutions in San Luis Obispo, with Cal Poly ranked among the finest in the nation for engineering and science education. Donations to the SLO 4 Haiti Fund will help qualified students from Haiti learn from the best and return to help Haiti build a prosperous future.
