

WAYS TO FINANCIALLY HELP IN HAITI

The devastation in Haiti from the recent earthquake is shocking. The recovery effort needs both immediate and long-term support. If you would like to support the recovery effort, here are a few organizations you might consider:

Direct Relief International – This Santa Barbara-based organization is already providing medications and medical supplies to medical professionals in Haiti. www.directrelief.org

Salvation Army - The Salvation Army has been operating in Haiti since 1950 and is utilizing its established programs to channel vital supplies to people in need. www.salvationarmy.org

Red Cross – The Red Cross Rapid Response Team is active in Haiti. www.redcross.org

Habitat for Humanity – Habitat for Humanity is active in providing immediate and long-term shelter for people in Haiti. www.habitat.org

Feed the Children – Feed the Children is distributing food in Haiti. www.feedthechildren.org

United Way Worldwide Disaster Relief Fund – This fund is dedicated to the long-term recovery needs of the people in Haiti. www.liveunited.org